

THIRD QUARTER
2017 ISSUE 5

KPIH CONNECT

A QUARTERLY INSIGHT INTO KPIH CATHOLIC RADIO
PAYSON, ARIZONA

100% Listener Supported

 Find us on Facebook

Have you Heard?

We've been listening. Listening for your thoughts about 98.9 Rim Catholic Radio

Mother Angelica

KPIH Board member
visits Mother Angelica's
Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Hanceville, Alabama

Catholic Vitamins is now heard on KPIH 98.9

Deacon Tom Fox and
His Lovely wife, Dee
share items of faith,
prattle, special guest
interviews and news.

Meet Drew Mariani

He brings our Catholic faith and values into every aspect of daily
living including health,
finance, family
and country.

WWW.KPIHRADIO.COM

Drew Mariani

If you listen regularly to KPIH 98.9 in the early afternoons, you know that we have added another hour of the Drew Mariani show originating from the studios of the Relevant Radio Network.

He brings our Catholic faith and values into every aspect of daily living including health, finance, family and country. Using his talent as a journalist and investigative reporter, he has traveled the globe reporting on important Church issues and events.

Drew has produced numerous television and radio programs on contemporary issues that provide an intersection of faith with real life (i.e. Relevant) experiences.

His creativity, vision and remarkable ability to communicate his message have won him distinction from his peers and a variety of awards and accolades.

Gifted as a powerful communicator, Drew is frequently sought after as a speaker for various events and for television and radio programs throughout the country.

Have Drew Pray
For Your Intentions

During the first hour of the Mariani show, Drew takes telephone calls from people seeking help, healing, consolation or answers to difficult situations in their life.

If you'd like to have Drew pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet prayers for your needs, call him at 877-766-3777.

--- KPIH COFFEE & TEA ---
FUNDRAISER NOV. 4 & 5, 2017

St. Philip the Apostle Church
After all the Masses

KPIH is 100% Listener supported.

When you donate to KPIH, you are helping to change lives.

Call today (928) 363-4144
or email kpih98.9@gmail.com

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER?

Payson ?

Terry Barber

No... not dinner. But KPIH Catholic Radio is bringing TERRY BARBER, the founder of Lighthouse Catholic Media, the author and co-host of the Terry and Jesse Show heard on KPIH Radio each weekday — that Terry is coming to Payson on Sunday, October 29th. He'll be speaking at the parish hall at St. Philip the Apostle Parish, 511 S. St. Philip St. at 2:00pm.

ONE APPEARANCE ONLY.

Topics? Terry will be speaking on the SECRETS AND MESSAGES OF OUR LADY AT FATIMA, and about SPIRITUAL WARFARE. Can you think of any two more important topics in our troubled times? No admission fee, just a good-will offering for those who can afford it.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29th at 2:00pm at the St. Philip Parish Hall. More info? Call KPIH at 928-363-4144. .

We've been listening

Listening for your thoughts about 98.9 Rim Catholic Radio.

Here's some of what we've heard said about KPIH:

"I'm learning so much... so much I didn't know about my Catholic Faith."

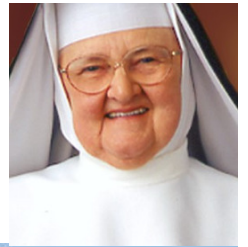

"When I first heard that someone was going to start Catholic radio — I thought it was going to be praying all the time or Christian music. But it's been wonderful. I especially like the talk shows and the callers to the various shows."

"I follow Patrick Madrid on Twitter and Facebook. Here's a quote I found from him." "I am part of the Fellowship of the Unashamed... My past is redeemed, my present makes sense, and my future is in God's hands... I am a disciple of Jesus. I must go till he comes, give until I drop, speak out until all know, and work until he stops me." (Patrick Madrid)

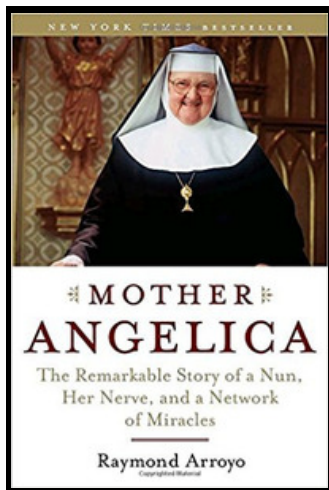

Someone spoke to us about the Terry and Jesse Show: "Those two are on fire for our Catholic Faith. I listen every day that I can. They call it 'full-contact' Catholicism. That makes me smile."

Our pilgrimage to Mother Angelica's Shrine of The Most Blessed Sacrament

By Jim and Candy Bridges

Jim and I made our second visit to Alabama this past summer. It was my godmother who suggested we listen to Mother Angelica's book on tape titled, "Mother Angelica. The Remarkable Story of a Nun, Her Nerve, and a Network of Miracles" We decided we'd listen to her story while driving the 1565 miles from Pine, Arizona to Hanceville, Alabama. Author, Raymond Arroyo, does an outstanding job narrating the book on tape. His voice impressions of all the characters throughout Mother's life help to remember who's who in the story. Raymond spent more than five years interviewing Mother Angelica. Throughout her life, she endured many physical and emotional challenges and she shares them honestly and candidly. We finished the book on tape just before arriving to our destination.

Queen of Peace Guesthouse in Hanceville, Alabama is where we met our fellow pilgrims. The beautiful home is one of many guesthouses that accommodate both small and large groups of visitors and pilgrims visiting the Shrine. Maria Ferra, the owner of Queen of Peace, experienced a calling from the Lord years ago while visiting the Shrine herself. God called her to sell her lucrative restaurants in another state, move to Alabama and build a guesthouse for pilgrims who visit the Shrine. Over the years, she has acquired, remodeled and built several beautiful and comfortable guesthouses just a mile or two from the Shrine. They are clean, comfortable and convenient.

Queen of Peace Guest House

Mother Angelica Quotes

"Never lose sight of the fact that you are beloved of God."

"Everything depends on the Lord: our salvation, our hope, our love. Everything."

"God has our entire lives in the palm of His Loving Hand. We can rest secure about our past, present, and future – for He loves us."

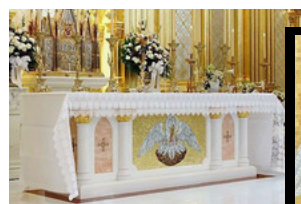

Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament - Hanceville, Alabama

7 1/2 foot high monstrance behind the altar

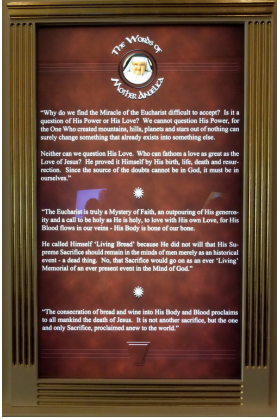

We attended Mass at the Shrine each morning during our stay. The utmost reverence and respect for the Holy Eucharist at Mass is beautiful. The Shrine is a sacred place and you feel it.

Mother Angelica's relationship with her spouse (Jesus) was very real for her. It was common for her to go to the chapel and show Jesus a new pair of shoes or other items she purchased. She spared no expense for her Lord when it came to all the beautiful furnishings and decor inside the Shrine and all throughout the property. In addition, hundreds of people donated precious jewels and diamonds that surround the true presence in the monstrance behind the altar. It's stunning and breathtaking. Although no names have been acknowledged, Mother Angelica shares in her book that it was five families that donated all the funds for the shrine and its property and surrounding structures, decor and design. Anything Mother needed or wanted, the donors were happy to oblige.

The mosaic of the Pelican on the main altar is a symbol of the Holy Eucharist dating back to Christendom. Jesus feeds us with his life-giving blood. This image impressed us so much and even more, after we learned the meaning.

There's lot's to do at the Shrine

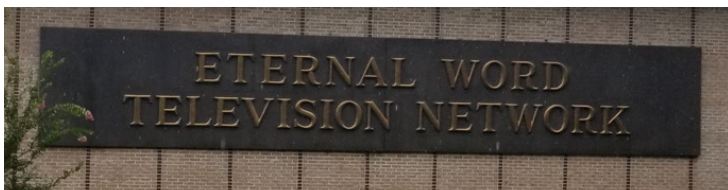

One of the most interesting places to visit on the Shrines property is JP II Eucharistic Center. The exhibits and displays create a visual experience that you will never forget. There are full-sized displays such as the first Passover, a 1st-century Jewish synagogue, the Last Supper, a beautiful fountain with the "Lamb standing as though slain" and water flowing out of the Temple. The artwork is outstanding. Both Jim and I enjoyed reading the wall timeline of documented Eucharistic Miracles and where they occurred all throughout the world.

Lourdes Grotto replica
The El Nino Gift Shop

The underground Chapel where Mother Angelica and her nuns are interned and where Masses are celebrated.

A Life-sized Nativity in a cave
A replica exhibit of the Shroud of Turin

Daily Masses, Tours and other scheduled events happen each day at the Shrine.

EWTN Headquarters in Irondale, Alabama

It was in 1981 that Mother Angelica, using her entrepreneurial instincts and $200, created the world's largest religious media empire in the garage of a Birmingham, Alabama. Under her guidance, the Eternal Word Television Network grew at an amazing rate. EWTN reaches over a hundred million viewers in hundreds of countries around the world.

Our group

As we toured the state of the art radio and TV control rooms and studios, Jim's thoughts were back in Payson, Arizona. He reflected on KPIH and the board of directors desire to grow KPIH 98.9.

Seeing what Mother Angelica has accomplished for God through the support of people who believed in her vision to expand Catholic teaching throughout the world is a testimony to faith and determination.

Jim reminded me of two things. One being KPIH carries many EWTN programs on the weekends and two, how KPIH is working hard to find ways to expand its broadcasting to all of the Rim Country. This will happen through purchasing upgraded equipment, technology and of course prayerful and financial support from the community and beyond. Mother Angelica was bold, unafraid and diligent with asking for help and support. Mother Angelica was famous for saying, "Please keep us between your gas and electric bill!"

Father Mitch Pacwa hosting EWTN Live

Mike Peters - Director of Radio Operations EWTN
and Jim Bridges - Board member - KPIH 98.9

One of the many offices at EWTN

KPIH - LP 98.9
RIM Catholic Radio
PO Box 1635
Payson, AZ 85547-1635

Change your station. Change your Life

What About CATHOLIC VITAMINS?

Deacon Tom and Dee Fox have been doing the Catholic Vitamins program as a 'podcast' on the worldwide web for over seven years! And now - it's heard twice a week in Payson on KPIH Rim Catholic Radio - 98.9.

Tom and Dee have interviewed bishops, priests, deacons, nuns, singers, musicians, evangelists — all (we hope) with inspiring stories of faith walk - sometimes with conversion or return to the Catholic Faith. Recent guests have included a priest who fled Vietnam on the day when the communists were invading from the north. At the time, Joseph was about 10 years old - and his family was on a boat heading out while soldiers were firing at them.

Another show featured Bishop James Conley - who told of becoming a convert to the Catholic faith because of a Great Books of the World class he was taking in college.

Join Deacon Tom and Dee each Monday at 10 AM or Saturday at Noon to hear great interviews and a bit of fun with 'Payson Prattle' and interesting listener give-aways.